Enford and Avon Valley Youth Club

Hi to all, my name is Jonah and I'm the new Chairman for the Enford & Avon Valley Youth club.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I have had to suspend the club till the 8th July 2016, when we will be re-opening with a bang. Being a member of Youth Action Wiltshire, we have a responsibility and a legal requirement to the children and young adults in our care on a Friday evening. All my Youth Leaders are required by law to be DBS checked, have some formal training in safeguarding, youth leadership and first aid. To their credit this is almost complete.

If any parent or guardian would like to help out at the club once or twice a month they would require a DBS check. The more volunteers we have the less opportunity for the club to close.

If you are interested please email me at jonahmt1967@gmail.com or come and see me at the club on the 8th July and we can start the process.

Kind regards
Jonah

ENFORD GARDENING CLUB

Further details from Fanny Middleton, 01980 671645
email fannysurtees@btinternet.com

There will be no meetings of the Gardening Club in July and August.
The Autumn programme will start on Thursday 8th September when our speaker will be Mike Burgess, talking on Dahlias.

More details will be published in the September edition of the Newsletter.

Last Month's Meeting

On a damp evening, a few hardy members of the Garden Club visited Lynn Miles' very wet garden at Boscombe.

The garden, which is steep and terraced, was obviously not seen at its best and also due to the growing season being about 2 weeks behind, the roses that climbed up many of the huge trees and would be a wonderful sight, were not yet out and the shrubs and herbaceous plants were hidden by grass bending under the weight of water.

Lynn kindly provided delicious cake and coffee after our tour and answered many questions.

It was sad that more members did not come along and that the weather was so unkind to us!

The club now takes a break until September.

Dear Doctor

My doctor I would like to see
This week would be good
'No hope of that', the receptionist says,
'I would help you if I could'.

Two weeks they say
My symptoms could be worse
Or they could be gone
In the time I am waiting
I could write a song

'Would you like a phone call?'
'Well, that would be so kind.
What are we going to talk about?'
'Well, the weather's nice!'

A phone call might save him time
But I doubt he can sound my chest
The sound he hears down the phone
Is the kettle boiling on the stove

'An appointment in 3 weeks,'
By then I could be dead
But we'll hope good luck is on my side
And I'm only in my bed!

On arriving in reception - I am still here
The place is empty, no-one there
Are they ill or left?
I'll just sit on a chair

At last a door opens
The doctor does appear
'What's the problem?' he kindly asks
It then strikes me - why am I here?

I wasn't well three weeks ago
But I'm much better now
Whatever it was didn't kill me
It just made me feel unwell

His time I may have wasted
Through no fault of my own
I could have come two weeks ago
And not chatted on the phone

The moral of this poem is
Ring the doctor before you're ill
By the time you get an appointment
You'll probably be unwell

Doreen Fay

Over the past couple of weeks a dog has run foul in the churchyard; the deposits normally around the new graves area. This is very disrespectful and is having to be removed by other people. It doesn't cost much to buy some dog bags or use plastic bags and deposit in bins at Enford Hill or to take them home.

There are notices in the graveyard so could the owners of these dogs please read and take action?

It can't be blamed on the dog as they can't read and it is the owners responsibility. I for one walk my dog through the churchyard each morning and do not want to spend my time picking up other dogs droppings and also scraping it off my shoes.

We have a beautiful church and church grounds. Please keep it like it is and be responsible.

Thank you.

A Team Vicar’s Musings

Well the trip to the Holy Land was good and my fears about being with a group of unknown people were unfounded. The whole experience was thought provoking in several ways with many of the thoughts connected with my spiritual journey. Now I’m back and thinking about the future.

I like music of all kinds and I found out the dates for Black Sabbath’s (they are a rock group for those who haven’t heard about them) final tour. The date I would like to get tickets for is in February next year but within an hour of the tickets going on sale they were sold out for the date I wanted. Then I saw that tickets just bought were being resold for up to twice the ticket value and it made me think.

What if there were an event at church next year that was booked up so early – wouldn’t it be fun?! But then I thought what if we knew the date when Jesus was going to return to earth would we book up early and be prepared to pay exorbitant prices to see him? I don’t think we would because when it comes to our faith we rarely get excited about it; often feeling embarrassed to talk to others. So it’s probably a good thing that we don’t know the date ‘cos what would we do?

Whilst we wait we can do lots of things beginning with the command given by Jesus “Love the Lord your God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence.’ This is the most important, the first on any list. But there is a second to set alongside it: ‘Love others as well as you love yourself.’ (Matthew 22 vv37-40 The Message).

Loving others as we love ourselves is often the hardest thing to do – if you want to discuss it do contact me either on rachel@avonriverteam.org.uk or 01980 594335. In the meantime if you know of anyone with a spare ticket!!!

With prayers, Rachel B.

Enford Community Fund

A number of requests were considered by the committee at the March round of funding and the following awards were made:

The sum of £1000 was promised to the Parochial Church Council in support of their efforts to secure funds and make the necessary repairs to the church roof. The sum of up to £119 was awarded to the Newsletter to cover costs of their website. Finally the committee has promised a small amount to cover the costs of materials so that the river bridge in East Chisenbury can be repainted – a project proposed by Amanda Marx as a celebration of Her Majesty the Queen’s 90th Birthday.

The Enford Community Fund comprises all the profits from the fete and fireworks events and is there to help community projects within the Parish of Enford comprising Enford, East and West Chisenbury, Coombe, Compton, Fifield, Littlecot, Longstreet and New Town. So, if you run, or are considering setting up, a project which may require help with initial costs or equipment, please get in touch.

Applications for awards must be made to the treasurer – Amanda Farrow – by email or letter no later than the first day of the award month (March & September). amanda.farrow@chisenbury.co.uk or 537 East Chisenbury.

The following guidelines will be followed in allocating funds

1. Awards will be considered every 6 months in March and September
2. Awards will be made for individual projects and are not designed to allow awardees to become reliant on the award on an annual/regular basis
3. Awards will be made to causes that benefit the community and not specific individuals
4. No awards will be made for greater than £1000
5. For any award to be granted there must be agreement by at least 75% of the funding committee

Copies of the community fund accounts and list of awards and donations made to date is available on the Enford Community page of the Enford Newsletter Website
