Don't delay seeking medical help because of Coronavirus

People living in Wiltshire are being advised not to let worries about coronavirus stop them asking for medical help for themselves or their children if they become ill, have a serious accident or have a concern about their health.

They are also being warned that not seeking medical help for symptoms that could be the early warning signs of serious conditions such as cancer could be putting lives at risk.

The warning comes as new data shows a considerable drop in the number of people coming forward to ask their GP for help and advice during the coronavirus outbreak.

Dr Ruth Grabham, Medical Director at BaNES, Swindon and Wiltshire CCG, said the statistics made for worrying reading because the drop in numbers "is not because people are not experiencing symptoms."

"While it may seem that coronavirus has put a stop to most aspects of everyday life, the one thing it hasn't stopped is what's going on inside our bodies," she says. "Now more than ever, we need to pay attention to anything that isn't normal and seek help early on.

For example, if you notice blood when going to the toilet, or if you've found a lump that wasn't there previously, or if you've just noticed something odd that is causing you to worry, you need to speak to your GP.

Should the symptom be the early warning sign of something serious like cancer, that delay in seeking help could have serious implications for how successful possible treatments may be."

Emergency departments are at three hospitals in Bath, Swindon and Salisbury, all of which continue to be open 24 hours a day for people with a genuine and life-threatening health concern.

Additionally, all healthcare facilities in the region, have put in place stringent infection control measures to ensure that the risk of contracting coronavirus while visiting a hospital or GP surgery remains low.

Details of which services continue to open, as well as how to get in contact, can be found online by visiting www.bswccg.nhs.uk

For information about local hospital services visit <https://www.ruh.nhs.uk/>, www.qwh.nhs.uk or www.salisbury.nhs.uk

The Support Network – Enford Parish Council

The Leaflet:

On behalf of the Parish Council I should like to thank everyone who has, at very short notice, managed to deliver a leaflet to every household in Enford Parish. Your efforts are much appreciated.

To the self-isolated/ vulnerable/ in need/:

No one knows who you might be – we all hope there may not be anyone – but life is never fair!

If you need to self-isolate please contact me by email or phone so that I am aware your situation and any specific needs or requirements you may have (foods, medicines, dog walking etc) and can arrange for a near neighbour to assist. Everyone’s needs will be different but we cannot help unless we know your needs.

To the Support Network:

Whilst this is not an immediate requirement, I should like to thank all those who have ‘registered’ their willingness to assist with, shopping, collecting prescriptions, doing urgent errands, dog walking etc. for those who may have to self-isolate. I don’t anticipate having to call on anyone immediately but in the more distant future, this may be necessary. At least we are prepared.

Nearly the whole Parish is ‘covered’ as it stands so should the need arise, you may just be helping out a neighbour. It goes without saying that all members of the Parish Council have also offered their assistance should it be required. Below is a list of the areas where support has been offered.

East Chisenbury
West Chisenbury
Littlecott
Central Enford

Enford Hill

Compton

With thanks to you all, keep well and stay safe

Following government advice and to help stop the transmission of COVID-19, Wiltshire Council has taken the decision to close all its libraries and leisure centres until further notice.

The mobile library service will also be suspended during this time. If anyone knows of any family, friends or neighbours who rely upon this service, please feel free to share books with them if possible, but please take into account the latest public health advice on contact with people, particularly with the elderly and vulnerable.

PARISH NEWS

It is with great sadness that we have put up a notice on the church board to advise of the suspension of all regular services. We hope and pray that this will not be for long. Let us continue to pray for one another and look out for those in need.

The church building sadly has to remain closed due to current restrictions. We shall let you know when this changes and hope to see you soon.

Do you have some time to spare to support local older people?

Information about all our roles can be found:

- ⇒ on our website www.ageukwiltshire.org.uk or
- ⇒ by calling our office on 01380 727767
- ⇒ or emailing us at volunteering@ageukwiltshire.org.uk

A word from Heather Breary our Team Curate:

Oh my goodness what a strange time it has been and almost certainly still is.

As I write this we are still very much in Lockdown with hope that some restrictions will soon be eased. Life will not be returning to the normal that we know, anytime soon, and we will need to find a 'new normal'

So much changes in our lives all the time, people come into our lives and people leave, we move house, we change schools and jobs. Things never stay the same. We as Christians have an anchor that holds us firm and keeps us steady through all the changes, the ups and downs in our lives. That anchor is of course God who never changes, never leaves us, although we may sometimes leave him, he just waits for us to return to Him.

In our communities and our homes we do still have so much to be thankful for. No matter how bad this situation has been there has been so much love and care, a reawakening and strengthening of a community spirit.

I'm sure like me you have been reflecting on many things over recent weeks, and it might be that you have found a church service to view on line, on YouTube or Facebook, maybe you are asking some big life questions and about God and the Christian Faith.

If you have why not try talking to God, He is just waiting for you to talk to him. We may be allowed back in our Churches by the time you read this and we'd love to see you but if the buildings are still closed you can still join us with on-line resources and services, or resources delivered to your door. Check our website

A bible verse that many of you will know is appropriate for us always but particularly now at this time.

Look after each other, look out for each other, and be assured that God is watching over all of us.

May God Bless you and keep you today and always

ALL SAINTS CHURCH, ENFORD SERVICES

Archbishops Justin Welby and John Sentamu have said it was now necessary to put public services on hold until further notice. But they said that far from having to "shut up shop", the Church of England must face the challenge by becoming a radically different kind of church rooted in prayer and serving others.

The Avon River Team will be providing prayer and worship ideas for people to do in their homes. These will be found on our website:

Under the current circumstances with the lockdown due to Covid-19, the Parish Council is unable to physically meet and carry on the usual business and requirements of local Government. In order to try and keep everything 'on track' as best as possible, I am therefore circulating a written Review of the Council members and their representations. - * Parochial Church Council – Cllr Mark Hiskett

Cllr Pat Holdway and Cllr Vick Exley remain on the Council with no specific roles.

4. APPROVAL OF ANNUAL ACCOUNTS
The internally audited annual return for 2019/2020 has been circulated and all Councillors have sent written acceptance of the figures and systems etc.
5. VERIFICATION OF MINUTES (14th May 2019)
This will best be done when the Council is once again able to meet and verify in person.

A message from your Newsletter Committee

Given the current Government advice, we strongly urge you to contact the organisers before attending any event advertised within these pages.

VE Day Celebration

On the eve of VE Day, residents and friends met on Water Lane, while observing the social distancing rules, at 8pm to "Clap for Our Carers".

Following that we enjoyed a sing-along with the Lane's Jane Hunt on her saxophone, playing "We'll Meet Again" and "The White Cliffs of Dover", finishing with her solo of "You'll Never Walk Alone".

It was a lovely way for friends and neighbours to meet up, show our appreciation and remember those that fought and died in WWII.

A "Big Thank You" to Jane for a brilliant performance and making us smile!

Wiltshire Council Launch the "We're Targeting Fly-tippers Campaign"

Wiltshire Council has launched a reward campaign to reduce fly-tipping throughout the county. They are urging anyone with any information about fly-tipping in Wiltshire to report it to them with as much information as possible, and any successful prosecution will earn a voucher of up to £200 for the person who reported it.

IMPORTANT: Do not try to rummage through or disturb the waste, as this could affect the scene and put people in danger. It is also essential that people do not attempt to confront anyone who is fly-tipping or put themselves in danger in any way.

To report fly-tipping in Wiltshire, or to find out more about the campaign, including terms and conditions, go to:

2. Awards will be made for individual projects and are not designed to allow awardees to become reliant on the award on an annual/regular basis.
3. Awards will be made to causes that benefit the community and not specific individuals.

Coombe-unity spirit in COVID

What do an Australian soap, Covid and Coombe have in common? For me, it's the reminder that "Everybody needs good neighbours"! The way in which residents of Coombe (where I am) and in the nearby villages have come together during the crisis whilst staying apart has been a pleasure to see and hear. The merry din around the valley on a Thursday evening is something I'll never forget!

A village is society in miniature: good, bad and sometimes ugly. There have been some disappointments during these times, from fly tipping, to social media spats, to police having to break up clusters of people. However, all in all, we've made very many silver linings to an otherwise difficult time. Humour helps, and there's been lots of it doing the rounds. I'm amazed that the number of funny videos being circulated on WhatsApp hasn't crashed our fragile broadband in Coombe! Things like this go a little way to lightening the load for those who are ill, worried or feeling down.

Creativity has thrived, for those lucky enough to have a bit more time. I didn't consider myself a creative person until now, but a highlight of my lockdown has been a weekly email quiz and challenge with some local friends. Having just recreated a famous album cover for last week's quiz, my partner and I are now working on a rendition of a Beatles song with new COVID lyrics. I'm not sure it's going to rival the original but we'll give it our best shot! So many other examples exist too, such as front-garden opera singers on a Thursday and the beautiful NHS mural in Netheravon. Our community has become a cultural hub!

Nature has been our alternative medicine, and we're lucky to have so much of it here. The sun has shone, the lambs are springing, and the views we have during our once-daily outings have been spectacular. Have you noticed how much more often people out and about are smiling and waving and stopping for a quick (socially-distanced chat)? Nature is also playing its part! I hope that even those quarantined at home have been able to appreciate the bird song and flowers.

Kindness – however - has been the greatest pleasure of all. I feel like we've returned in some ways to the good old days, when people knew their neighbours and looked out for them. The number of local people volunteering on the NHS app is so high that they're mostly twiddling their thumbs; but people are doing all sorts of good deeds, like sewing masks, shopping for those that can't, and checking to see they're OK.

In Coombe, I've got to know those around me better, and we've actually had fun. We know we can rely on each other, and that we can ask for help if we need it. We've also created new traditions, like Easter Day drinks and music in the street (I brought out my violin after a 20-year break)! Time flew, and we've promised to do it next year, hopefully minus the 2-metre distance.

The thing is, I hope that this time next year we will still be good neighbours, and will have kept up our humour, creativity, appreciation of nature and most of all, our kindness. Well done everyone, and let's keep that community spirit ringing around the valley!

Victoria Walsh

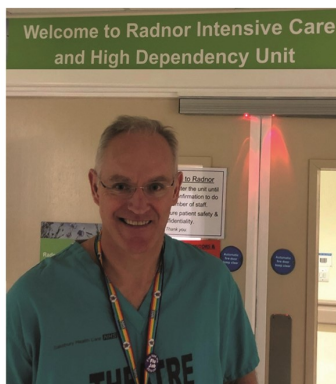

Dear friend,

My name is Duncan Murray. I am an Intensive Care Doctor at Salisbury District Hospital and an Ambassador for our hospital charity, the Stars Appeal.

During the Coronavirus pandemic, nurses, doctors, porters, cleaners, catering staff, office workers, and my many other NHS colleagues at Salisbury Hospital, are all working hard to ensure patients receive the best possible care.

Throughout this difficult time, the Stars Appeal is funding a range of projects that are really helping our staff and our patients. The Stars Appeal staff counsellor and mental health nurse are helping staff cope with what they are going through. Stars Appeal Wi-Fi is keeping staff and patients connected with loved ones. Specialist simulation training is ensuring we are well prepared for whatever we may face and Hospital chaplains are offering comfort and reassurance. The Stars Appeal is also working to provide staff with morale boosting care packages, and their garden spaces offer peace and tranquillity away from the busy wards.

The support offered by the Stars Appeal at this incredibly challenging time is more valuable than ever, but the lockdown restrictions have meant much of the charity's normal fundraising has had to stop. If you can, please donate to enable our charity to continue to help us all through this crisis. You can do so by completing the form overleaf or by going online at www.starsappeal.org/coronavirus

Every donation, large or small, will make a difference for staff and patients at this difficult time for our hospital. With your help, the Stars Appeal can continue its vital work and react quickly with new ways to help as things progress.

Thank you. Stay safe and well.

CrimeStoppers.

Speak up. Stay safe.

WILTSHIRE
CRIMESTOPPERS*0800 555 111

100% anonymous. Always.

We work with County Police Forces to help reduce crime in our communities and to protect vulnerable individuals. Crimestoppers nationally runs a large number of campaigns each year educating the public about different crime types and appealing for information. The national website is www.crimestoppers-uk.org, should you want to find out more.

In Wiltshire, we are trying to increase our reach to the public with a number of initiatives to make our communities more aware of our service and encourage its use. We are also looking for volunteer 'Ambassadors' within individual parishes to help us stay aware of local issues and promote the use of the service.

Public reporting of crime and anti-social behaviour using 999 or 101 is sometimes inhibited through fear of identification, and thus also of recrimination or reprisal. In providing a 100%-guaranteed anonymous reporting system through Crimestoppers using the number 0800 555 111, we hope to overcome those fears and thus make our communities safer for all. In the last year alone, anonymous reports of crime to Crimestoppers in our county have led to a number of convictions.

One of our objectives this year is to make more people in Wiltshire, especially the more vulnerable members of our communities, aware of the Crimestoppers reporting service through the parish magazines of the County. We hope, for example, to keep the Crimestoppers logo and contact details constantly in the public eye through regular placements in publications such as these.

Finally, as a volunteer Committee we are always looking for people to help our cause and kindly give us their time to make our communities safer; if you know of anyone who may be interested please do let me know.

DO YOU NEED SUMMER BEDDING PLANTS, COMPOST, HERBACEOUS PERENNIALS, READY-PLANTED HANGING BASKETS, FRUIT TREES ETC.??

For several years, I've been using a wonderful firm in MARKET LAVINGTON called SUPERIOR PLANTS, owned by Tony Archer. They normally supply thousands of ready-planted hanging baskets and boxes to pubs around the country - in these difficult times, the plants are there but the customers are not. Lots of items available now - wait till mid-May to order Hanging Baskets, tender annuals etc. Lots more information on their website.

They will deliver FREE OF CHARGE with NO minimum spend. Their drivers will carry any heavy items for you (compost etc). Their prices are very fair, I'd say cheaper than most other places I've visited, and they are delightful people too!

Tony is working flat out so you need to call, leave a message and he will call you back once he gets into his office. Details as follows:

ENFORD MASK STOP

You might have seen it on your daily walk through Enford: The bus stop transformed into a mask stop.

We are a group of local makers and have been making various items for NHS staff, community and key workers as part of the Salisbury Makers Hub. As it looks as though it is soon going to be recommended that we all wear face masks when shopping and in enclosed spaces, we are joining forces with the Enford "Scrub Hub" to provide face coverings for our community.

Please feel free to take a mask, but do not try them on before washing at 60 degrees and limit touching the rest of them. Please only take what you need, so that there is enough for everyone.

We are asking for voluntary donations towards materials and/or a charity/community project. The suggested donation is £2. All donations can be left in the blue bag or for online donations look up:

End of life specialists launch appeal for support during Covid-19 pandemic

The Coronavirus pandemic has affected the nation in different ways but one area that has been hit harder than most is the charity sector.

For local charity Prospect Hospice, demand for services is increasing while, at the same time, vital funding dried up overnight. The charity continues to deliver essential specialist end of life care to local people, but is now struggling to find the funds to do this.

To combat this, the charity is launching an appeal to raise £2million to ensure its crucial services continue during this time and in the months and years to come. Irene Watkins, chief executive of Prospect Hospice, said: "The hospice is still supporting this community, but to respond to the current needs for Covid-19 we have had to dramatically change and increase the size and scope of our services.

"This means we are supporting people in their homes on a scale of operation we have never attempted before, we've re-deployed staff to ensure that our skills are used in the best possible way and we've invested heavily in PPE to protect our key workers, our patients and their families."

As a local independent charity, Prospect Hospice depends on nearly three quarters of its income to come from local people but since the end of March, many fundraising events have needed to be cancelled and all hospice shops have closed meaning the traditional ways people used to support the hospice are no longer available.

Talking about funding of the hospice at this time, Ms Watkins said: "As you'd expect, we have cut costs wherever we can, and the Government recently committed £200 million to support hospices across the country. From this Prospect Hospice has received an allocation of £341,000, which we welcome, however, in the current climate, we calculate that over the coming six months the shortfall from lost income will mean that we will still need to raise a further £2 million to deliver the hospice service. This I know is a big number but we simply must raise it."

Care from the hospice is delivered free of charge to patients in the Swindon and north east Wiltshire area but the hospice incurs large costs in order to do this and, during the Covid-19 period, it is costing the hospice £17,197 a day to run all of its services.

Broken down, it costs around £26 per day to fuel a nurses car so they can visit patients in their own homes, around £177 will pay for all of the specialist medical supplies and equipment that we need to care for a patient, and the average cost of a single person cared for at this time is around £601.

Prospect Hospice has been part of the local community for 40 years but it now needs your help to be here for the next 40.

A Taste of South America Episode 4

You join us as we leave via boat for our final Galapagos destination of Santa Cruz. The boat trip was one I'll never forget. The swell was only about 2-2.5metres, but unfortunately the current and wind were all coming from different directions causing us to have a rather bumpy ride! Knowing how unpleasant this journey was going to be, with a few likely to succumb to sea sickness and against Dallas's advice I decided to sit on the top deck for this journey. Although it was scary at times I had a blast, laughing in hysterics each time we hit a wave and I got drenched, the captain looking back at me, possibly thinking I was slightly crazy! A much better, more exciting trip than those feeling so ill below!

Santa Cruz is the most central of the Galapagos Islands and is home to the largest population of 16,000 people. It's definitely the most commercial and probably the least favourite island we visited. There were lots of souvenir shops, restaurants, pubs, even complete with a bright green caterpillar train that goes along the pier front; Blackpool at its best. It has fewer accessible sandy beaches for swimming and snorkelling and we saw fewer animals here.

Whilst on Santa Cruz we visited the Charles Darwin research centre. It contains much of research his work, exhibitions of past and present projects and a larger Giant Tortoise breeding centre.

Dallas went for a half day's dive seeing white and black tipped reef sharks, Galapagos sharks, lots of big schools of fish including snapper and big Eagle rays. Whilst he did so I went on a trip to see some underground lava tunnels. Inside, the tunnels, which you can walk through, are around 30metres long. We were lucky enough to see the 2 species of owl on the island, the barn and short ear owl. I then went to an island farm. We saw and got to make and taste cane sugar alcohol, locally grown coffee and did a walk where I was able to see Giant Tortoises living in the wild. A real highlight for me especially with the amount I saw too.

Unfortunately this was the final day of our Galapagos trip, an experience we shall never forget. My favourite island was Isabella, for the wildlife I got to see, swimming with the turtles and penguins and snorkelling through the lava tubes; also hiking the Volcano, the vast differing landscape and formations. My one special memory will be how all the animals were so comfortable with our presence, just going naturally about their everyday life, especially the Blue Footed Boobies standing over the nest, their eggs underneath. For Dallas his favourite island was also Isabella, for the variety of wildlife we saw and activities we did, lots of snorkelling and kayaking. His standout moment was snorkelling with the sharks, turtles and sea lions.

My only disappointment on the islands was the amount of rubbish littering the streets and bushes and unnecessary use of plastic. For islands where reducing the amount of plastic, conservation and the environment is so important single use plastic seems to be more commonly used. Individual wrapped apples in the supermarket, single soap bar and shampoo sachets in some hotels and plastic bin liners in bins, changed every day due to dirty toilet paper. There are a lot of efforts in place to change these and fingers crossed it happens soon.

We are now going out for a meal before starting the next part of our adventure. Both excitement and nervous.

Now for the start of our Peruvian adventure. We left Ecuador and flew to Peru's capital Lima.

Lima is home to 8.6million people, nearly one third of Peru's total population. The earthquake in 1746 destroyed all but 20 houses and killed 4,000 inhabitants. Today Lima is seriously affected by chaotic traffic, smog and is surrounded by poor neighbourhoods, something that became apparent on our arrival.

Arriving at 10.45pm it took us an hour to clear immigration. Thankfully we already had our transfer booked, as the airport and queues for taxis were chaos. Once inside the taxi we were given a sign to read stating all luggage must either be locked in the boot or kept under your seat. This was due to opportunists opening doors or leaning through windows to steal bags and luggage and with the number of people milling around, despite it being past midnight, it seemed a likely possibility! The areas outside the airport I would definitely refer to as 'the Bronx'. A high police presence, flashing lights, lots of cars and driving in more lanes the road was designed for! It certainly had me wondering what type of country we would be spending the next 2 weeks in! Thankfully the area we were staying, Miraflores in the southern suburbs, looked more inviting; much cleaner and tidier with numerous hotels, restaurants and less intimidating night life.

On our first day in Peru, Dallas and I explored the local area. The city felt quite cosmopolitan with high-rise buildings next to busy roads and adjacent to this tree-lined cobbled streets. There were large sporting areas running parallel to the road with tennis courts, gyms, swimming pools; all open air with terraced seating.

About a 20min walk out of a town was a beach. All the beaches in Lima, despite being declared as unsuitable for swimming, are still very much part of the culture with many locals swimming.

We also visited Kennedy Park, a well-kept park which has an open air theatre and arts and crafts markets most evenings.

While walking through the park, which is surrounded on all sides by busy roads, we noticed a cat sleeping under one of the trees. Then spotted one up a tree, one under a bench, another sleeping on the grass and so it went on. We later discovered the park is now home to many stray cats and was previously a well-known area for abandoning unwanted sick or injured cats. An organisation now looks after the 'park cats' ensuring they are fed and watered daily, neutered and every Sunday is adoption day, where thankfully strict criteria must be met to be eligible to rehome a cat. On the whole, the cats look fairly healthy and seem to be happy and relaxed living in the park, climbing trees.

Later that afternoon we caught a bus into town for an orientation tour, visiting the colonial centre, seeing its historic architectural buildings with rich gilded wooden balconies.

Join Lisa next time for the Inca part of her trip.

Let's Get Quizzical!

We may not be able to go to our pubs, but here's a pub style quiz to have with your G&T or pint! Other drinks are of course just as acceptable!

The Hall is temporarily closed in line with current Government guidelines and all activities or bookings are cancelled until lockdown restrictions are lifted. If visiting the Recreation Ground for exercise or play, please follow social distancing guidelines with a special request to dog owners to please clean up after their pets; there is a waste bin near the entrance to the field.

It is not yet known when regular Classes and Clubs will be able to start up again but do check with the relevant organisers and teachers who can let you know their plans and arrangements.

If you have booked a private event and have had to cancel or postpone due to all the restrictions, please contact the Booking Officer and your deposit will be returned or carried forward to another date.

Film Nights have been cancelled until September and, if all goes well, dates for the Autumn Season will be 22 September, 27 October and 24 November. They are generally held on the fourth Tuesday of the month, and will be publicised through the Newsletter and the Film Club mailing list. If you would like to be included on the mailing list in future please contact enfordvillagehall@btinternet.com.

In the meantime, if you have any queries or concerns please contact:

Enford Camera Club

Based on Government Advice regarding the Coronavirus, we will be cancelling the next two meetings of Enford Camera Club (June and July).

In the meantime, please take the opportunity to get some fresh air and practice taking photos on the themes of:

- The moon
- Flora and fauna

There is no meeting in August so hopefully we will be able to meet again in September.

The camera club charge only £3 per evening. You don't have to join the club, just turn up for the night.

Contact enfordcameraclub@btinternet.com for more information.

Message from Parish Resident (name withheld)

With the current situation, as it is, and people being restricted to exercise, can I therefore ask why horse owners persist on using Water Lane, rather than fields to exercise their horses, leaving trails of horse pooh, strewn all across the lane. If this was dog pooh, they would be the first to complain.

It makes things very unpleasant for walkers, bikers, joggers, families etc.
