Thoughts from Rev. Simon Pope

Hope and Gratitude

As November brings its cooler days and longer nights, we are again reminded of the season of reflection and gratitude.

This month is marked by Remembrance Sunday, a time to honour those who have sacrificed their lives in service to others. Their courage and dedication echo the words of Jesus in John 15:13: "There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends."

This season also draws us closer to the celebration of Advent, a time of preparation and anticipation of the coming of Christ. As we enter this season, we can find comfort in the hope that Jesus brings, knowing that in times of darkness, His light shines through.

November is also a time to express gratitude for the blessings we often overlook. As we give thanks, let us remember those in need and extend generosity to our neighbours. Our local Foodbank, based in Durrington, is a great way to reach to those in most need, and requires constant replenishment. Everything given locally stays locally and is passed on to those in need in our community.

As we honour those who sacrificed so much for our freedom, let us remember their sacrifice in the best way we can by supporting each other, and passing on hope.

Is there anything you want remembered in our prayers for you this month? If so, please get in touch.

Every blessing, Rev Simon Pope (Team Curate)

Recipe of the Month

CHICKEN THIGH BAKE WITH LEEK, POTATO & PARMESAN

An economical, easy dish, loved-by-all! Crispy skin, meltingly delicious leeks in a cheesy sauce with a few potatoes to keep up the carbs!

SERVES 4

Oil, for greasing baking tray	8 chicken thighs, skin on, bone in,
4 leeks 600-700g, washed & cut into 2 cm slices/rounds	150ml chicken stock (cube is fine)
500g new potatoes, unpeeled in 1cm thick slices	3 heaped tbs grated Parmesan
12 thyme sprigs or 1 tsp dried thyme
Sea salt and ground black pepper
1 tsp Dijon mustard
100ml double cream
4 garlic cloves, sliced

Preheat the oven to 220 degrees/Gas7.

Grease a large, shallow roasting tin about 41 x 26cm and 4cm deep.

Put the leeks, potatoes, garlic, half the thyme sprigs/dried in the tin and season. Mix well, then shake the tin to level them out. Space the chicken thighs out on top and then scatter the skin with a light sprinkling of salt. Pour in the stock, avoiding the chicken. Cook at the top of the oven for 45 mins until the chicken skin is golden and crispy.

Meanwhile, mix the mustard and cream together with a little seasoning. The cream may thicken up a bit which is fine.

Remove the tin from the oven and spoon or blob the cream sauce over the vegetables, avoiding the chicken, and gently nestling it in with a spoon. Don't worry if it's not all amalgamated. Scatter the parmesan over it all, then return to the oven for a further 10 mins or until golden and crispy. Scatter with the remaining thyme sprigs just before serving.

Serve from the tin.

NOTE: You can make to the end of step 3 up to 2 days in advance, cool, cover and chill, keeping mustard mix separate. Add mixture and heat until piping hot.

A Decorative Art: The History of Wallpaper

On Tuesday November 5th at 2.30pm in the Bouverie Hall, Pewsey. Our speaker will be Joanna Banham.

Wallpaper is often regarded as the least precious of the home decorations. Yet the history of wallpaper is a long and fascinating subject, dating back to the 16th century. From the first black and white patterns, to the fashion for all things Chinese, the designs of William Morris and the Arts & Crafts movement, and now the taste for modernist and contemporary design.

Joanna Banham is a freelance curator, lecturer and writer. She has held posts at the V&A, the National Portrait Gallery and at Tate Britain. She is currently curating an exhibition on William Morris and the Arts and Crafts Movement at museums in Madrid and Barcelona.

Doors open at 2.00pm for refreshments:
visitors always welcome - £7 cash on arrival.

Wiltshire and Swindon

pcc I recently published my Annual Report for 2023-24 which I hope you will find is an informative summary of the work undertaken this year. The report highlights a 16.6% drop in anti-social behaviour incidents in 2023/2024 compared to 2022/2023, and a 13.4% reduction in domestic abuse related crimes, across all Neighbourhood Policing areas in the same time frame.

Another milestone was achieved this year, with Wiltshire Police removed from His Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary, Fire and Rescue Service's Engage process. Alongside this, the Force has also received a promising HMIC Police Effectiveness, Efficiency and Legitimacy (PEEL) report. The Chief Constable and I approach these with cautious optimism.

Our goal is to ensure these improvements are felt at grassroots level, so everyone can experience a genuine sense of security, rather than just being reassured by statistics. Working together, we continue to restore trust and confidence in our policing service.

The first draft of a refreshed Police and Crime Plan for 2025-29, has been published. I want to encourage residents to submit their feedback on the plan before the final version is published later this year. See the full Annual Report here. Read the draft Police and Crime Plan and submit your feedback . <https://forms.office.com/pages/responsepage.aspx?>
