Thoughts from Rev. Team Curate V E Day

The 8th May is the 80th anniversary commemoration of VE Day.

What did one soldier say to the other on VE Day? "We came, we saw, we conga'd!" The celebrations were legendary and lived long in the memory.

The anniversary comes at a timely moment in history, as we reflect on a context where there is currently war raging in Europe and peace is a truly fragile commodity. There are over 100 conflicts worldwide taking place right now! Will we ever learn?

There's a favourite phrase in our house... it's not the taking part that counts, but the winning! The importance of VE Day isn't just an excuse to be patriotic, but a cause for reflection. Imagine if we hadn't won? What would the future of Nazism have brought to Jews and minority groups who survived the hatred of holocaust? How many more innocent lives would have been taken?

Victory came at a huge cost. The suffering and sacrifice of so many is, of course, a clear echo of the great meta-narrative of Christianity. For Victory to come over the powers of sin and death, it required the ultimate sacrifice of God Himself, becoming human, suffering, dying and then rising to new life. We live after the event and so hope is possible. The sheer relief and the coming together of so many on VE Day must surely inspire us to work together for peace and unity in a world that seems so fractured.

Blessings, Rev. Phillip Bromiley

In Sympathy. Our condolences go to Rick Gillett and all the family on the loss of his wife, Karen. Long time popular members of the village, who for many years ran a disco for the youth club and private functions which many will remember attending. Karen also played darts in the local pubs as a member of the Enford darts team.

Her funeral will take place on 15th May, 12 noon at Enford Church and afterwards at the Village Hall.

GREAT BUSTARD GROUP

Patron: HM King Charles III

The lek is in full swing – a lek is a competitive gather of males trying to attract a female. The male Great Bustards turn themselves into huge white puff balls and can be seen for miles, even with the naked eye. They do not look much like birds when in full display, but just large white objects. Even those coming especially to see the Great Bustards can mistake them for MoD signs or white fertilizer sack blowing in the wind.

The first nests will be happening anytime now. A particular task the GBG has is to make sure females who nest in silage fields are not killed by mowing. To prevent this, we search likely fields at dawn with thermal image equipped drones. Once a nest is located, we ensure the safety of the female by alerting the farmers, or even by removing her eggs under licence, so she will move elsewhere to nest again. Using drones on the MoD estate is a sensitive issue and we are grateful for the support of the Air Ops team at Westdown Camp for making our searches possible.

Recipe of the Month:

SALMON, COURGETTI & ASPARAGUS WITH LIME & CAPER DRESSING

2 medium courgettes, spiralled
Bunch of asparagus (10-12 spears)
100g samphire (optional)
Olive oil
4-6 skinless salmon fillets
Sea salt
275g fresh egg noodles/rice
Cress to garnish (optional)

Zest & Juice of 1 large lime
1 tbsp white wine vinegar
2 heaped tsp capers, drained
1 clove of crushed garlic
2 heaped tsp seedy mustard
5 tbsp olive oil
1 tsp salt
Fresh ground black pepper
1 tbsp freshly tarragon/dill

Method

Preheat the oven to 200 degrees. Mix all the dressing ingredients, except the tarragon, and set aside.

Blanch courgettes in boiling salted water for 30 seconds - no longer. Drain, cool and leave rolled in kitchen paper to dry thoroughly.

Trim the asparagus and cook in well-salted boiling water for a few minutes until just tender. Drain and cool under water. Cut in half. Cook the samphire in boiling unsalted water for 3 mins, drain and cool under cold water. Roll in kitchen paper with the asparagus to dry.

Line a baking sheet with foil and lightly oil. Tuck the thin end of the salmon fillets underneath so they cook evenly. Drizzle a little olive oil and a few sea salt flakes over and bake for about 7 mins.

Put the noodles into a bowl and season. Add courgettes, asparagus (saving a few spears) and most of the samphire. Add the tarragon to the dressing and spoon 4 tbsps. into the noodles. Incorporate all ingredients gently - hands are best! Pile on a platter, break salmon into chunky flakes and scatter over the top. Decorate with asparagus and samphire then spoon over the dressing. Garnish with cress.

Serve warm or at room temperature.

For this event we will be supporting BLESMA (British Limbless Ex-Services Men's Association). They were first formed just after World War 1 and in the 100 years since they were formed the association and its members have achieved much. 40,000 men lost limbs in World War 1. During the 1920's limbless men came together to support each other and gather together to discuss their problems. This led to LESMA (Limbless Ex-Services Men's Association) being formed with the first branch opening in an area of Glasgow. In 1932 Different branches of LESMA came together and received charitable status and became BLESMA. 12,000 men and women lost limbs in World War 2. By 1963 BLESMA had opened 3 homes to house and support their members and the number of branches had grown from 24 to 120. During the 30 years of the Northern Ireland conflict the membership grew by another 100 members. Fast forward to 2022 and BLESMA celebrated their 90 year anniversary. They have supported over 62,000 veterans with lifelong support. We hope that you will donate as much money as you are able to with hard working charity.

TO-DAY, AS WE CELEBRATE VICTORY, I send this personal message to you and all other boys and girls at school. For you have shared in the hardships and dangers of a total war and you have shared no less in the triumph of the Allied Nations.

I know you will always feel proud to belong to a country which was capable of such supreme effort; proud, too, of parents and elder brothers and sisters who by their courage, endurance and enterprise brought victory. May these qualities be yours as you grow up and join in the common effort to establish among the nations of the world unity and peace.

Jane Young's parents during the war

May 2025

Although Identity cards were abolished in 1952, rationing continued for some years after this. The last things which were rationed were meat and bacon. Rationing of these only ended in June 1954

The UK was the last country involved in the war to stop rationing. It lasted over 14 years, from January 1940 to June 1954.

Home on leave, this was very precious time for families.

Clothes and fabric were also rationed; most of the clothing made was uniforms and essential items.

Due to clothes rationing wedding dresses were very difficult to get. A number of brides made their dresses from parachute fabric, which in the early years of the war were made of silk.

Later, a group of women in the USA, realising the difficulties for UK brides gathered and sent over hundreds of used wedding dresses to be distributed to English brides.. Left is a bride wearing one of those donated wedding dresses.

The May lecture of The Arts Society - Pewsey Vale will take place at the Bouverie Hall at 2.30pm on Tuesday 6th May

The lecture celebrates the 400th Anniversary of Charles I's accession in 1625. His obsessive collecting began when, aged 22, he travelled to Spain and saw the magnificent collection of the Spanish king, Philip IV. Becoming King in 1625 Charles purchased the art collection of the Gonzaga Dukes of Mantua which included works by Titian, Raphael as well as Andrea Mantegna's series of paintings; "The Triumphs of Caesar".

Charles later engaged Peter Paul Rubens to paint the ceiling of the Banqueting House in Whitehall and Anthony van Dyck as his Court Artist. By the end of his reign he had amassed over 2000 works of art but in doing so he had bankrupted England and alienated his people.
